

From: Robert Breidecker
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/10/01 10:43pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

DOJ,

I am very disappointed in your settlement with Microsoft. The settlement is very weak and does little to change Microsoft's behavior in the future and punish them for breaking the law in the past. The ideas proposed by the nine states that have not settled are much closer to where the DOJ should have settled. Your settlement is so weak that it actually may do more harm to the computer industry and consumers than if there were no lawsuit at all.

Robert Breidecker
7258 Cornell Ave.
St. Louis, MO 63130